

Performance Sponsorship Guideline

How your donation helps?

2500 EUR

This is a contribution to theatre rent, costume rent, costume storage, fee of international choreographers and their accommodation, among others, With the aim to provide opportunities for students to reach their full potential, we are challenged to meet the cost of staging performances, commissioning new choreography, inviting on our own cost guest teachers and organising European tours and presentations. Your donation will also help with establishing new international collaborations to invite guest teachers and guest dancers as well as helping to fund technical support.

You, as a Performance sponsor will receive:

- Prominent recognition in the printed programme
- A full page of advertising
- An agreed number of VIP tickets to the performance and VIP reception
- A private drinks reception if preferred for the Sponsor's guests
- Inclusion in any media and promotional material relating to the performance
- Invitations to other Brussels International Ballet events throughout the year
- Grateful acknowledgement on the School's website and in its Annual Report

5000 EUR

This is a contribution to theatre rent, costume rent, costume storage, fee of international choreographers and their accommodation, among others, With the aim to provide opportunities for students to reach their full potential, we are challenged to meet the cost of staging performances, commissioning new choreography, inviting on our own cost guest teachers and organising European tours and presentations. Your donation will also help with establishing new international collaborations to invite guest teachers and guest dancers as well as helping to fund technical support.

You, as a Performance sponsor will receive:

- Prominent recognition in the printed programme
- A full page of advertising
- An agreed number of VIP tickets to the performance and VIP reception
- A private drinks reception if preferred for the Sponsor's guests
- Inclusion in any media and promotional material relating to the performance
- Invitations to other Brussels International Ballet events throughout the year
- Grateful acknowledgement on the School's website and in its Annual Report

7500 EUR

This is a contribution to theatre rent, costume rent, costume storage, fee of international choreographers and their accommodation, among others, With the aim to provide opportunities for students to reach their full potential, we are challenged to meet the cost of staging performances, commissioning new choreography, inviting on our own cost guest teachers and organising European tours and presentations. Your donation will also help with establishing new international collaborations to invite guest teachers and guest dancers as well as helping to fund technical support.

You, as a Performance sponsor will receive:

- Prominent recognition in the printed programme
- A full page of advertising
- An agreed number of VIP tickets to the performance and VIP reception
- A private drinks reception if preferred for the Sponsor's guests
- Inclusion in any media and promotional material relating to the performance
- Invitations to other Brussels International Ballet events throughout the year
- Grateful acknowledgement on the School's website and in its Annual Report

12000 EUR

This is a contribution to theatre rent, costume rent, costume storage, fee of international choreographers and their accommodation, among others, With the aim to provide opportunities for students to reach their full potential, we are challenged to meet the cost of staging performances, commissioning new choreography, inviting on our own cost guest teachers and organising European tours and presentations. Your donation will also help with establishing new international collaborations to invite guest teachers and guest dancers as well as helping to fund technical support.

You, as a Performance sponsor will receive:

- Prominent recognition in the printed programme
- A full page of advertising
- An agreed number of VIP tickets to the performance and VIP reception
- A private drinks reception if preferred for the Sponsor's guests
- Inclusion in any media and promotional material relating to the performance
- Invitations to other Brussels International Ballet events throughout the year
- Grateful acknowledgement on the School's website and in its Annual Report